

Queensland Rally Vehicle Registration Scheme Notice of Cancellation

As a condition of the QRVRS, CAMS must advise QLD TMR when a vehicle has its QRVRS Authority to Operate cancelled. Cancellation of a QRVRS Authority to Operate may occur in the following circumstances.

- As part of the process of the sale of the vehicle. A QRVRS Authority to Operate cannot be transferred to a new owner. The original owner must cancel the Authority to Operate (using this form) and the new owner must apply for a new QRVRS Authority to Operate.
- Should an Authority to Operate not be renewed within the timeframe required by QLD TMR, the QRVRS Authority to Operate must be cancelled. A new QRVRS Authority to Operate may be applied for in accordance with the Guideline for QRVRS.
- Should the vehicle not be able to meet the requirements of the Guideline for the QRVRS, or be unable to continue to meet those requirements as per the original application Inspection.

Please forward this completed form to the QLD CAMS office via email qld@cams.com.au or post PO Box 1859, Milton BC, QLD 4064
